

Instruction on Preparation for Pentecost

Taken from Explanations of the Epistles and the Gospels by Rev. Leonard Goffine

We should withdraw, after the example of the Blessed Virgin and the Apostles, to some solitary place, or at least avoid, intercourse with others, as much as possible; speak but little, and apply ourselves to earnest and persevering prayer; for in solitude God speaks to man.

We should purify our conscience by a contrite confession, become reconciled to our neighbor, if we have lived in enmity; for the Holy Ghost, as a spirit of peace and purity, lives only in pure and peaceful souls. (Ps. lxxv 3.)

We should give alms according to our means, for it is said in the Acts of the Apostles (Acts x.) of the Gentile centurion Cornelius, that by prayer and alms- deeds he made himself worthy of the gifts of the Holy Ghost.

We should fervently desire to receive the Holy Ghost, and should give expression to this longing by frequent aspirations to God, making use of the prayer: "Come, O Holy Ghost, &c."

Promises of the Sacred Heart

In the year 1675, Our Lord appeared to the Visitation nun St. Margaret Mary Alacoque. He promised the following to all who would make reparation to His Sacred Heart:

1. I will give them all the graces necessary for their state of life.
2. I will establish peace in their families.
3. I will console them in all their pains and trials.
4. I will be their assured refuge in life, and especially in death.
5. I will shed abundant blessings upon all their undertakings.
6. Sinners shall find in my Heart an infinite ocean of mercy.
7. Lukewarm souls will be rendered fervent.
8. Fervent souls shall rise rapidly to greater perfection.
9. I shall bless those houses where an image of my Heart shall be exposed and honored.
10. I will give to priests the gift of moving the hardest hearts.
11. Persons who propagate this devotion, shall have their name inscribed on my Heart, never to be effaced from it.

The Feast of Corpus Christi

The feast of Corpus Christi (Body of Christ) was instituted about six centuries ago as a special memorial of the love of Christ for us. In the 13th century Pope Urban IV instituted the procession of Corpus Christi in order to increase faith in the Real Presence of Christ in the Blessed Sacrament. The procession is generally ended with a solemn thanksgiving, the Te Deum. The feast of Corpus Christi is a holyday of obligation in many countries. Where the procession is not made on Thursday, it is transferred to the following Sunday.

Taken from My Catholic Faith

Out of respect for Our Lord and for the edification of our neighbor we beg visitors to appear in church modestly dressed.

For men, norms of modesty are not met by jeans, open shirts, or tennis shoes.

For women, they are not met by mini-skirts, sheer blouses, slacks, or sleeveless or low-cut dresses. Women are further asked to cover their heads.

Your cooperation is evidence of your love for Our Lord in the Blessed Sacrament and respect for the House of God.
